Board of Directors Meeting

Board of Directors Reports:

Trials: Angie Manning: Working on judges for Spring Trial in March.

Enid needs one more judge.

No Scent trial for November at Chickasha.

Social/Special Events: Patti Cantrell: Christmas party is being planned, still working on the caterer. No one has volunteered for the July picnic, if no one volunteers Patti Cantrell will host. Will put a Save the Date in the newsletter for the Christmas party.

Bldg. Oversight: Sherry Landers: Storage room id leaking again, have told Raymond and he is going to look at it, not seeing any water in the puppy ring. Front is leaking again and bathroom is still leaking.

Stewards: Patti Saize: Absent, but Enid is covered.

Unfinished Business: Have the Square, and Betsy and Karen will get it up and running soon.

New Business: Patsy has paid the NW OKC membership dues to the Chamber of Commerce, and the Chamber says they will drop by.

May do demo at the Water Bark on a weekend, Betsy will get with them and set up a date maybe for November or December, we would need to bring equipment but they have an area that we can use.

Motion to Adjourn was made at 8:22 p.m. by JoAnn Weaver, 2nd by Patsy Graumann, Approved.

Executive Session after regular meeting.

MEMBER NEWS

Calling all (Therapy) Dogs!!

The Metropolitan Library System is always in need of support with full-time and substitute teams for the Reading to Dogs program in 2019. If you might be able to help with this rewarding and much-needed program, please contact Heidi Port, MLS Volunteer Coordinator 405-606-3762 hport@metrolibrary.org

I have been doing Reading to Dogs for the past 9 years at the Capitol Hill and Southern Oaks libraries, to me it is very rewarding to see the smiles on the kids' faces especially for the shy ones or kids who are having trouble reading. –Cheryl Mann
